Kinect Project Progress Report

Completed:

- Songs can be generated using a Markov Chain.
- The gesture recognition system has been integrated and works for the rules that have been given to it so far.
- Whole entire songs can be generated with respect to the compatible emotions.
- Whole songs can be saved as midi files using the old music library (SoundCipher.)

In Progress:

- Getting the generated song so that it can play using a new music library (jm-etude.)

To do:

- Adding in Markov Chain data for new emotions.
- Adding in general compatibility for more emotions in the functions that generate the songs.
- Adding in rules for the gesture recognition system for the newly compatible emotions.
